The 2019 Golden Horseshoe Conference was a resounding success. Thank you to our conference partner SimpsonWigle LAW LLP, and all our conference sponsors, speakers, and delegates.

It was an exciting program with a great team of speakers who both educated and enlightened our attendees' practical skills on planning for their Condo's future and working through some tricky day-to-day situations.

We kicked off the conference with our Property Managers' session where Robin Dafoe, CEO and Registrar of the Condominium Authority of Ontario, updated us on Empowering Condominium Communities in Ontario.

Ali Arlani, CEO and Registrar of the CMRAO, then updated members on the role of the Condo Manager in Relation to the Condo Board.

Thank you to Elia Associates for sponsoring lunch:

Delegates then enjoyed some wine & cheese and visited all our exhibitors.

Sponsored by:

Ryan Griffiths, Craig McMillan, Stephanie Sutherland

The winner of the Property Managers' Session Draw Prize, a weekend for two in Niagara-on-the-Lake, was Craig McMillan from MRCM.

Thank you to our prize sponsor:
